

LOCAL SHRINERS TO MAKE GREAT SHOWING

Orak Will Send a Train Load of Nobles to Des Moines Saturday

Des Moines, Ia., is to undergo the unusual experience of doubling its population overnight. It will happen Saturday night when herds of Shriners from all parts of the country will pour into the city for the annual convocation. Orak Temple of Hammond will send a trainload of nobles from its domain. The same preparations are being made in other cities and advance information has it that between 80,000 and 120,000 visitors will overrun the Iowa capital.

Hammond's delegation will leave Saturday afternoon for Chicago where they will be the guests of Medinah Temple until 11 o'clock in the evening. They will then board their train and make up in Des Moines. The round trip costs $4.50 and covers carefare and quarters from the time of departure until they arrive back in Chicago on Friday morning.

Because of lack of hotel accommodations Des Moines is expected to bill thousands of the guests in homes. A city of Pullman coaches will also be maintained within two blocks from the meeting place. The Hammond train will be shunted on a siding along with some 500 other coaches. The railroad yard is being fitted out with hand saws, electric lights and a sewer system will be laid along the ground ready to be attached to the cars. Telephones will be installed in all cars. The railroad company is furnishing a field washing car which is a regular traveling laundry capable of washing 7,000 shirts, 7,000 pillow cases and 15,000 towels.

Because of the inadequate street car system, 1,200 citizens have donated the use of their automobiles as public conveyances during the convocation. There will be a huge barbecue which will require a great deal of steers. There will be a fireworks display, greater than any ever given in the United States hitherto. Parades five miles long will be given and the visitors will bring $5,000,000 worth of equipment for the annual circus which is staged by the drill teams and drum and bugle corps. Hammond's men will be there in uniform ready to take their part in the great spectacle.

There is still one car on Hammond's special train to be filled and those in charge are hustling around to sign up the balance of the party.

PUNTNEY BOUND OVER

Howard Puntney, arrested yesterday morning by the Hammond police for stealing $2,000 worth of equipment for a machine shop, consisting of a lathe, electric motor and other tools, was taken to the Hammond city court this morning and was bound over to the criminal court. His bond of $2,000 was furnished.

Several of the stolen articles which were recovered have been identified by their owners. A practical clock worth about $1,200, belongs to the Central Nut Lock company, Hoffman street and Calumet avenue. The electric motor, valued at $200, which was the cause of Puntney's being arrested, belonged to Magnot Bros., Coal company, and 601 to E. R. Streeter, as was at first reported. A typewriter and check protector, a total value of $200, was found to be the property of Shea and Co., Logan street. These articles were taken a year ago, and the supposition is that Puntney has been operating for a long time.

Another arrest was made late yesterday afternoon in connection with the case. Ralph E. Brooks, 37 west Williams street, West Hammond, was taken into custody following Puntney's statement to the police. It is not believed that Brooks is morally guilty of robbery, and for this reason he has not been bound over to the criminal court, but will be examined in Hammond. His character has been of the best, and his offense was to help Puntney transport a piece of machinery later found to be stolen, by using his motorcycle. There was no personal gain in it for Brooks and he was merely lending aid to a friend. His bond has also been furnished.

12-YEAR-OLD LAD IS HURT

Robert Brookstone, 12 years old, was the victim of an automobile accident which occurred at the corner of Calumet avenue and Sumner street yesterday afternoon. He was crossing the street when struck by the machine of Paul Stark, no address given. The lad was taken to his home at 786 Calumet avenue in Stark's car. His injuries consisted of a skinned shoulder and hip. Stark was driving north on Calumet when the accident occurred.
